NEWBERRY, S. C,

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 25, 1888.

A BIG DEAL.

The Richmond Terminal Company has scooped in the Georgia Central and all articles of necessity. now controls about 9,000 miles of rail-road in one system. The Georgia Central system contained about 2,500 miles of road. This is one of the biggest deals of the day.

It would seem that it is almost useless for a town or city to try to build or have more than one railroad, for the big corporations soon swallow the little companies anyway, and about the time you think you have competing lines, they all fall into the hands of the big corporations. Augusta has five railroads leading into the city now, all under the control of one big corporation-The Chronicle thinks though, inasmuch as the railroad trusts cannot scoop the Savannah River, that Augustrust from scooping the steamboat lines on the Savannah?

It looks as if trusts, monopolies, and big corporations, are going to scoop the country. We are still of the opinion country. Possibly it is right.

GOOD PLUMS.

A good deal of interest is taken this year in the county and city offices in New York, almost absorbing the Presidential contest. These offices are worth fighting for in a financial point of view, and there is no wonder there is a scramble for them.

"The sheriff of the county of New States. He receives no stated salary, this executive officer of New York, but the fees provided by statute amount to $40,000 a year-or $120,000 for the term. He has nine special deputies, a cashier, five bailiffs, a secretary and eleven clerks. In all, the sheriff appoints 55 efficers, and handles in a year half a million dollars in fees. The county clerk to be elected in New York in November receives a stated salary of $15,-000 a year. His deputy receives $5,000 and his cashier $3,000. He appoints sixty persons, whose gross salaries reach $90,000. The three coroners receive $5,000 per annum each for four years. Each coroner appoints three physicians, who get $3,000 apiece. The president of the board of aldermen, to be elected next month, gets $6,000 per annum. His term is two years.

This is why they sell out Presidents and sacrifice parties. This is why we In addition to these there is the Mayorship for which there is a big fight and which office is worth as much in salary as the presidency. SUPPORTING LOCAL PAPERS.

The people of Radford will not look in the direction of advertising the town. They will even attempt to cripple their town paper by patronizing offices of other towns with their job work and so forth. Still everyone expects the Democrat to boom Radford for all it's worth.-Radford (Va.) Democrat.

We have seen many cases of this kind, and some business men seem to be incapable of appreciating the fact town ten times as much good as it is ever paid for. Men having large interests in a town and deeply concerned as they can do for their own local papers. The papers of the South are to-day do ing far more for the good of their country than they receive credit for Day after day and week after week they are telling of its advantages of soil, climate and minerals and of its progress. The facts which they give are widely published in other papers, and thus the good work is carried far beyond their immediate circle of readers. The Manufacturers' Record has often noted with admiration the great work that Southern papers are doing, and regretted to see how poorly in many cases they are supported by the people whose interests they are serving .-

Manufacturers' Record. There is much truth in both of the above observations. Some people find into a permanent organization, under fault with the local papers if they are not continually writing up the town and yet never do anything themselves | iterated the demands of the first contowards helping the papers in the way vention as to the need of agricultural of advertising and even in some cases send abroad to have their job work of which have been granted and others done, when they could secure the same work at home for even less than they by this movement has been of vast benpay for it elsewhere, all of which is legitimate if they desire to do it. We do not refer to this in any spirit of fault to crown our efforts with success. finding, but we desire to show the value that should be placed upon the local papers. A town without a local paper people do not appreciate the local the future with united and continued papers, we fear, as they should. Simply this and nothing more.

The great need of the National Demo cratic party seems to be more funds. The South should respond liberally to tee urgently request that full delegathis demand for the success of the tions from every County be present. National Democraric party means a great deal to the South. In fact it is more important to us at the South than to any other section. We hope the lack of a little money will not be the cause of defeat.

"GOOD FOR CAROLINA."

Under this head here is what the Augusta Chronicle says of the Carolina exhibit for the Exposition:

"The Carolina wing of the Exposition building will be something well worth study. It is a majestic work. The great pyramid will be etched along its basic columns with different colored stones and minerals. The sides will be panelled in fine wood and polished cabinet work. Surmounting the pavilion is a cap piece in grain, crowning the position like a benediction. The Carolina men have gotten their exhibit nearer completion than any other department in the hall."

We have not heard of Newberry making any preparations for an exhibit made into cotton bagging at a cost at this Exposition. When we get our Three C's we will be close to Augusta, and we should let the people know entire cost of their treatment. It is what a rich county we have over here probable that by the next spring over

THE TWO PLATFORMS. The Christian Union gives the following succinct and yet comprehensive statement of the two platforms of the two great parties contending for the control of the government: "Two policies are proposed. The Democratic party proposes to confine appropriations of public mone; to such administration of the government, to retain the tax on alcohol, to modify the er? tax on tobacco and to reduce the tax on imports by admitting raw materials

Tax on raw materials. Retain. Reduce.

The Board of Trade passed a resolution to raise $1,000 to assist in obtaining the rights of way for the Three C's R. R. through the town and the committee is active raising the money. We have never thought it was right for the railroad to ask any further help from this town or township, but if citizens desire to subscribe no one can object.

We are glad of one thing, that the railroad can have no further excuse for ta is still safe; but what will keep this delaying the work on our division. We have believed that the right of way through town was only raised as an excuse for delaying work and now that through the liberality of citizens more that money is king and rules this to see the contract let for grading this division at an early date.

Congress has adjourned after one of the longest sessions on record.

It is truly very important for every Democratic voter to go to the polls on the 6th of November and give the Democratic ticket an overwhelming majority for Cleveland. Indifference and anathy may be the cause of Demo-York is worth in emoluments almost as much as the Presidency of these United that would be too bad.

Judge A. G. Thurman is doing some good campaign work in Indiana. He is making a number of speeches, and they are full of life and vim. He is a grand old man.

Capt. B. R. Tillman has issued a call for the State Farmers' Association to meet in Columbia November 14th. The call is published in this issue. Each county is entitled to send five delegates.

Augusta is making big preparations for the Exposition which opens there next month. We should send over a good delegation of visitors as we have no exhibit from the county. South Carolina is said to have a fine exhibit, and we can claim that for ours, and feel proud of our State while there.

The cheaper the whiskey, the more and Courier. An expression of sentiment which we suppose might be taken as an indication that the Broad street journal advocates "high license."-World. Wrong brother! Your neighbor on Broad street favors protection. Every Democrat in Newberry should go to the polls on the the 6th of November and vote the ticket just as if we had that every good local paper does its a real live enemy to fight at the ballot box on that day. It will not consume much time and you owe it to yourself to its progress often try to see how little as a good citizen and Democrat to do this much.

PINE STRAW BAGGING.

A Lot of Bales Wrapped in it Shipped to Liverpool-The Jute Trust a Dead Duck.

[Special to the Greenville News.] CHARLESTON, S. C-, October 20 .-Among the cotton received here to-day was one lot of 15 bales from Cheraw, S. C., which was covered in bagging made from pine straw.

The entire lot was quickly disposed of and readily accepted by the exporters. This practically solves the bagging puzzle and puts a quietus on the hopes of the jute bagging trust. The Chamber of Commerce of this place some weeks ago subjected the pine fibre bagging to a severe test and at once pronounced it merchantable. The fifteen bales were shipped to Liverpool. The adaptability of the bagging to the covering of cotton will result in a wonderful revolution in the south. It is made of the needles or leaves of the pine. THE SENN MURDER CASE.

David Senn and Helena Boland Convicted but Recommended to Mercy.

[Special to Augusta Chronicle.] SPARTANBURG, S. C., October 21.-In Southern homicide cases the usual query is: Was it murder or self-defence? more rarely: Was it murder sums as are necessary for an economical or a natural death? and rarest of all:

The Senn-Boland case belongs to that class in which the second question is free of duty and by reducing taxes on asked, and is becoming exceedingly interesting as the state weaves a closer web of circumstantial evidence about the prisoners. Twenty-one witnesses testified during the first day, their evidence embracing 32,000 words. They narrated tempts to conceal the wounds, Senn's apparent lack of feeling, his threatening with drawn pistol the wife of his cousin, who had noticed the marks of violence. The route of the party was traced and proof offered of Mrs. Senn's health. Drs. Thompson, Kibler and Senn, of Newberry, were examined as the medical experts who made the post mortem. Discoloration, they stated, had by that time effaced the marks of violence, but dissection showed that death was caused by strangulation or suffocation, and revealed the absence of any natural cause for death, the condition of heart, lungs, etc., being normal. Testimony was offered tending to show that Dave Senn had illtreated his wife, that they had once separated, that Miss Boland was the disturbing element, that Senn was once money has been subscribed, we expect put under bond to keep peace with his wife, and had at the time made ugly threats; that he had once struck her with a stick as she lay in bed at night. At about 11 o'clock yesterday morning the state closed, and testimony was heard on behalf of the prisoners. Affidavits containing admissions as to what absent witnesses would swear were read, showing that Mrs. Senn had been treated at various times for rheumatism of the heart, consumption and asthma; that an abscess in her throat had been lanced, and that her husband had treated her with invariable kindness. Several witnesses testified that Dr. Thompson, when performing the post mortem, was under the influence of morphine, and contradicted the state's witnesses as to Dave Senn's conduct. Dr. W. G. Houseal of Newberry, then said that he was present at the second post mortem examination as a spectator, and heard the testimony given, and saw no reason to belive that death from natural causes was impossible. Dr. Means, of Spartanburg, was of the opinion that the most important organ to be examined in such a case was the traches, and that without an examination of it a sure conclusion that death resulted from strangulation could not be reached.

David N. Senn, the prisoner, told with great minuteness the story of his trip and his wife's sudden death, denying many of the statements of the witnesses for the state, and explaining Put Off the Train.

[Register, 20th.] An occurrence on the Columbia and Greenville Railroad yesterday afternoon will be very likely to be made the basis of a legal suit in which the right of railroads to charge an excess over the regular fare to passengers fail-ing to purchase a ticket at stations where tickets are sold will be tested. Col. F. W. McMaster of this city purchased a ticket for Columbia at Peak's yesterday, paying 90 cents therefor, and boarded the down passenger When Conductor E. S. Motte came round to collect tickets, Colonel Mc-Master discovered that he had lost his.

He so stated the case to the conductor and offered to pay the regular fare 90 The conductor said that his rate for fare paid on the cars was $1.15, the excess of 25 cents being charged because of failure to buy a ticket at the station. Thereupon Colonel McMaster refused to pay the extra charge under the circumstances, and the conductor, stating that his orders in such cases were positive to collect the extra fare or to eject passengers refusing to pay the same from the train, when a point a short distance from Wallaceville was reached, stopped the train, and Colonel Mc-Master was left beside the track. After reaching Columbia, a telegram to the station agent at Peak's elicited the information that Colonel McMaster had purchased a ticket there as stated, but had left it lying on the counter in the haste of departure.

P. T. Barnum Gives His Niece $100,000

THE PLAGUE IN JACKSONVILLE. An Increase of New Cases and Deaths

JACKSONVILLE, October 21. - The weather is decidedly cooler, with prospects of rain. The change from yesterday is said by physicians to argue ill for the sick, and likely also to induce new sickness. Churches, generally, were opened for services to-day, the first time in many weeks. The attendance was good. Early in the epidemic the Board of Health officially discouraged gatherings of people, fearing the spread of the infection by this means. Since then the infection has become general, and the people have lost all fear of taking the disease by mingling together.

In an editorial this morning the Times-Union strongly urged a general attendance at church services. The question of disinfection is still the all important one discussed everywhere, and the burden of inquiry in every letter from the refugees. Dr. Porter received to-night a telegram from Surgeon General Hamilton, in which the latter says he is unwilling to assume he responsibility of enterring private dwellings, destroying property and promising reimbursement therefor, without first consulting with the executive branch of the government. He will hold an interview with President Cleveland to-morrow, learn his views on the subject and communicate with Dr. Porter forthwith. The magnitude, delicacy (in many particulars) and expense of this work is without precedent n the history of epidemics. The last two days have witnessed lecided increase in the number of new cases, and to-day's death record is not very encouraging. But there is hope in the steady lowering of the temperature, and the people are banking on this more than upon any other condition, Dr. Neal Mitchell, President of the Board of Health, reports 27 new cases up to 6. p. m. to-day; deaths 4. viz; A. B. Thasher, West Ashley street, corner of Hogan; E. S. Ulmo, Liberty street near Beaver; Hick McKutchen, colored. Brooklyn; Mattie Scott, colored, 210 Ward street. Total cases to date 3,796; deaths 331. Of the new cases to-day 8 are white and 19 colored.

NEW YORK, October. 20 .- The Democratic national committee is in receipt of many letters from anxious Democrats in the state and throughout the country asking them to bring about a union of the local factions, if not on the asked about the London deal reiterated mayorality, at least in the Congressional districts. Such letters receive a courte- with great enthusiasm of the prospects ous answer declaring that the national committee will take no part whatever

The Georgia, Carolina and Northern Railroad Reaches Chester.

[Special to the Register.] Chester, Oct. 20 .- The track laying on the Georgia, Carolina and Northern Railroad has reached town. The first whistle on this new road sounded for the first time within the corporate limits to-day. The work all along has been forwarded as rapidly as possible consistent with the excellent character of the work. There is nothing "shoddy" about it. The bridge spanning the Catawba River near the junction with the Three C's is said to be one of the finest and most substantial pieces of work in the South, costing $80,000. It does look from the strong build of this road throughout it will be almost everlasting. The grading is broad, even and perfect, the ties are large, of uniform size and of the best heart pine, while the rails are of the best steelweighing sixty pounds to the foot. This will be a grand road for Chester, because it not only furnishes a competing line of railway, but opens up a new out-let to the sea, and, through the syndicates, steamship lines to Liverpool and the great Eastern markets. The new depot building of this road here is completed ready for freights. It is 120 by 40 feet. The agent's office is pretti-ly finished, having a succession of single sash glass-windows about six inches apart, making almost a solid glass inclosure, giving the agent the advantage of an oversight of all transactions in the spacious wareroom without leaving his office. Our enterprising citizen, Mr. E. P. Moore, has been appointed agent. A large cotton platform is being constructed. Some agitation has been given the matter of giving a public demonstration or reception upon the completion of the Georgia, Carolina and Northern road to this place. It seems such would be nice and proper-to give expression of welcome in some manner. Besides Chester cannot afford to to be behind Yorkville and Rockville and other sister town in this respect. To be so might exhibit a lack of enterprise and public spirit, and this charge should not be laid at our

NEW YORK, October 19 .- While Wall street is devoting much of its attention to live Southern enterprises, London is ike-wise looking to that field, and English investors are showing substantial faith in the good properties of the New South. How they Manage Matters at County Elections in Kansas.

KANSAS CITY, Mo. October 19-In the county seat election in Grant Coun-Kansas, on Tuesday, the town of lysses received a clear majority of 2,150. The people of Appomattox, the other leading town, charged Gen. T. T. Taylor and Col. J. A. Grayson, of Hutchinson, with selling them out to Ulysses, and seized and were threatening to lynch them, when the sheriff and a large posse arrived. Each town is said to have put up $10,000 forfeit not to use money in the election. About 3 o'clock on election day, it is alleged, the Ulysses men began spending money to buy votes. The Appomattox men then seized Taylor and Grayson, who had been managing the campaign for them, forced them to sign warranty leeds for all their property, as well a checks for $60,000 on all banks where the two had money. Payment on the checks has been stopped and proceeding will be commenced to set aside the deeds
